The Rules of Procedure for the Conference

- I. The hosts, paper presenters, and panelists of each session must arrive at the venue on time.
- II. Please follow the following regulations regarding conference paper publication and speaking time:
 - (1) Moderator: Opening time is 5 minutes.
 - (2) Each paper report lasts 15 minutes. At 13 minutes, the bell will ring once for a short time; at 15 minutes, the bell will ring for a long time.

- (3) The panelists will have 7 minutes for each comment. At 5 minutes, the bell will ring once for a short time; at 7 minutes, the bell will ring for a long tone.
- (4) In principle, 10 minutes are reserved for discussion. The host can make appropriate arrangements according to the time limit of the session (including questions from guests and responses from the presenter).

III. After the paper is read out and discussed, please follow the following regulations:

- (1) When participants speak, they should first obtain permission from the host, state their name and Tao Community, and then speak. If two or more people want to speak at the same time, the host will determine the priority.
- (2) Each person is limited to 1 minute to speak (when 30 seconds, press the bell for 1 short sound, and when the time is up, press the bell for 1 long sound). On the same topic, each person can speak no more than twice, and the content of the speech should be relevant to the topic and strive to save time; when necessary, the host can draw attention or ask the speaker to stop speaking.

IV. Please refer to the program for the rest times between each session. Guests are welcomed to participate in the whole process.

V. Things to take note:

- (1) Please turn off or mute communication devices such as mobile phones to maintain conference quality.
- (2) No eating or drinking is allowed in the venue. Please go to the designated venue for lunch.
- (3) Please do not video, record, or publicly disseminate speech content and images without authorization. If you have any questions or suggestions, please contact the conference staff.
